

FORUM ON UNIVERSITIES AND INTERNATIONAL WATER, SANITATION & HYGIENE (“WASH”)
CAPITOL HILL VISITORS CENTER ROOM SVC 203/202
(Entrance on East side of U.S. Capitol)

MARCH 3, 2010; 2:00-4:00 P.M.

Agenda

- 2:00-2:10 Welcome & Opening
- 2:10-2:15 Introduction [David Douglas, Water Advocates]
- 2:15-2:30 Surveying the Role of Universities in Meeting the Global WASH Challenge

Presenters:

Christine L. Moe, Ph.D.
Eugene J. Gangarosa Professor of Safe Water and Sanitation
Director, Center for Global Safe Water at Emory
Rollins School of Public Health of Emory University

Melinda Laituri, Ph.D.
Associate Professor, Forest, Rangeland, and Watershed Stewardship
Colorado State University

- 2:30-3:00 Stories from the Field: Panel Discussion [Katherine Bliss, Center for Strategic and International Studies, Moderator]

Panelists:

Michael E. Campana, Ph.D.
Professor of Hydrogeology and Water Resources
Oregon State University Department of Geosciences
Founder and President, Ann Campana Judge Foundation

David K. Creamer, Ph.D.
Professor of Hydrology
University of Nevada Las Vegas

Jenna Davis, Ph.D.
Assistant Professor of Civil and Environmental Engineering
Fellow, Woods Institute for the Environment
Stanford University

David A. Sabatini, Ph.D., P.E.
David Ross Boyd Professor
Director, WaTER Center
University of Oklahoma College of Engineering

Kellogg J. Schwab Ph.D.
Associate Professor
Director, Center for Water and Health
Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health

- 3:00-3:10 U.S. Government Comments on University WASH activity [Dep't of State, USAID officials]
- 3:10-3:30 Questions & Answers [Katherine Bliss, Center for Strategic and International Studies, Moderator]
- 3:30 Formal Event Concludes
- 3:30-4:00 Informal Networking