

Three T-T Faculty Positions @ Florida State University
Posted: 27 September 2017

FLORIDA, TALLAHASSEE 32306. Florida State University. The Department of Geography invites applications for TWO tenure-track positions at the rank of Assistant Professor to begin August 2018. POSITION ONE: Human-Environment Geographer with specialization in environmental justice and/or political ecology. POSITION TWO: Critical Human Geographer with specialization in areas such as but not limited to: gender & sexuality, political economies, migrant justice, and studies of the global south. For both positions the successful applicant will be expected to teach human geography classes, pursue research, and secure external funding. Emphasis should be placed on how the applicant's research would complement existing department strengths (<http://geography.fsu.edu/our-people/faculty/>). Salary and benefits are highly competitive, and commensurate with qualifications and experience. A PhD in geography or a related area is required. Email ONE pdf attachment (that identifies position 1 or 2, and includes letter of application, CV, and names and contact details of 3 referees) to Dr. Victor Mesev (vmesev@fsu.edu) by October 20, 2017. Florida State University is an equal opportunity employer.
