

First, I'm going to have to request some patience over the next few weeks, as things are excessively busy, so I most likely will be publishing several lists per week, including this week. I will try to keep the emails to a minimum.

Second, and more exciting, the drinks night at the 8th World Water Forum is all set! Please go here for more information and register interest (to help with numbers for the reserved space). The quick: 21 March @ 20:00 at BierFass. Bring your friends.
